APPENDIX

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

From the reports of our schools we show the following facts as being worthy of special mention. We note with pleasure the continued growth in efficiency and number of students enrolled in Emory University, at Atlanta, Ga., and most heartily commend this school to the favorable consideration of our young ministers and would urge them to avail themselves of its advantages. We are also gratified to note the increased usefulness of our Correspondence School and would urge our undergraduates in the Conference courses of study, as far as practicable, to avail themselves of its services in their preparation for their work of the ministry.

The report of Trinity College shows the largest enrollment in the history of this great institution. We hereby record our grateful appreciation to Messrs. B. N. and J. B. Duke for their continued interest as indicated by a contribution of $25,000 to the running expenses of the College this year. We congratulate the alumni on account of their splendid success in raising funds to build a gymnasium as a memorial to the Alumni of Trinity College, who lost their lives in the service of their country in the late war. We also heartily commend the action taken by the friends of the late Mr. J. H. Southgate to erect on the campus of Trinity College a memorial building as a tribute to his great services rendered to the school.

From reports from Greensboro College for Women we note that it is full to overflowing with students and is maintaining its high standard of efficiency and making a large contribution to the education of our young women. We hereby record with thanks our appreciation of the large donation of $100,000 by Mr. J. A. Odell to erect a music hall at this institution.

The report from Davenport College also shows that this institution is enjoying a year of great prosperity and receiving the well-deserved patronage of a large and increasing number of our girls.

We are pleased to note that Weaver Hall at Rutherford College has been completed and occupied during the present year, and we wish to tender our thanks to the large number of friends who have contributed to the fund which has made possible the splendid achievement, thus enabling the college to care for an unusually large number of students, more than forty of whom are preparing for the ministry.

Reports from Weaver College, Jefferson School and Brevard Institute show that all of these institutions are in good condition and rendering fine service both to the church and the state. A charter for Weddington Industrial Institute has been secured and preparations are being made to start as soon as practicable an industrial school for boys.

The Board has had before it a request from the Bishop and his cabinet that due consideration be given to the need of our Conference for a thoroughly trained ministry, especially as this need may be met by increased support of the Ivey chair of Biblical Literature in Trinity College and an adequate sustentation fund. We are recommending action, looking toward compliance with this request.

We recommend for the coming year an assessment for the school work of our Conference of $20,000 and $2,000 for the sustentation fund. The amount raised on assessments for our Conference schools shall be apportioned as follows: To the support of the Ivey chair of Biblical Literature at Trinity College $3,000; Summer School and incidental expenses $500; Of the sum remaining there shall be paid on a pro rata basis as follows: Greensboro College for Women, 3,750.00; Davenport College, $3,750; Rutherford College, $3,750; Weaver College, $3,750; Jefferson School, $1,500; sustentation fund, $2,000.

We request the General Board to appropriate the sum of $6,000 to the schools within our Conference, the same to be divided as follows: Rutherford College $2,500; Weaver College $2,500 and Jefferson School $1,000.

The time has come when our schools must have more adequate equipment for the work that they are intended to do, and we urge our people to whom God has given an abundance of worldly goods to make liberal donations to these institutions of learning so that they shall be able better to perform their task in the cause of Christian education. We would also urge our people to give their moral support and patronage to these schools.

POLICY OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS RESPECTING ITS MISSION CHARGES

This policy shall guide the Board of Missions in the execution of its trust in regard to the mission charges of the Conference:

Whereas, this Board is charged with the responsibility of determining what appropriations shall be made to its mission charges, a responsibility which cannot, under our disciplinary law, be shared even with the Conference itself, and whereas, its plain duty is to bring those charges to a basis of self-support as speedily as possible, not only for the sake of releasing money for the development of new and promising fields, and whereas, the policy of this Board in the past in its appropriations has not resulted in producing satisfactory results in the way of self-support; therefore be it,

Resolved, first, That the policy of the Board in supplementing the salaries of certain of our charges looks only toward temporary relief in getting new charges on their feet. The expectation of the Board, therefore, is that these charges will make every effort to attain independency at the earliest possible moment.

Resolved, second, That our mission charges shall be divided into three classes. Class A, B and C. Class A shall comprise charges which agree to co-operate with the Board for the purpose of their becoming self-supporting, and have their appropriations reduced twenty-five per cent of the original appropriation each year. Class B shall comprise charges which agree to co-operate with the Board for the purpose of their becoming self-supporting and have their appropriations reduced twelve and one half per cent of the original appropriation each year. The Board makes the wholesome recommendation that their congregations increase the salaries to a sum equal at least to the amount of the reduction, that at the expiration of four or eight years, as the case may be, the charges will be independent and the congregations will have formed the habit of making a small increase on the salary each year, thus having laid the foundation for continued progress.

It is understood however that though the foregoing is a general rule the Board reserves the right to remove all the appropriation, or any part thereof, from any mission charge, whenever in its judgement it is wise to do so.

Nothing is further from the mind of the Board than any reduction in the support of the preachers in charge of these missions, which is in most cases pitifully and shamefully small, but the remedy is not in pauperizing with missionary money charges able themselves to give their pastors a comfortable support. Such a policy puts a premium upon non-development and makes missionary territory, which offer no hope of immediate development, to which the foregoing rule shall not apply. It is hoped by the Board that a change of conditions may result in many of these charges being speedily transferred to Class A or I that the number of charges in Class C may be kept at a minimum.

It is also understood that the Board is left free to deal with special cases on the merits of the information that may be obtained. It is the policy of the Board, when large appropriations are required, to make a personal investigation into the needs and possibilities of the field.

Resolved, three, That the every member canvass, for the support of the Ministry and Collections, a disciplinary requirement, be a condition for the Board's giving aid, and that the Board will require that this canvass be made by the time of the payment of the second quarter of the appropriation. A failure to make this canvass, without furnishing a good reason for not doing so, will suspend payment of appropriation.

Resolved, four, That every charge attaining unto a self-supporting basis be put upon a special roll of honor and published with our reports in the Conference Minutes.

Resolved, five, That where circuits have been divided and missionary money requested to help furnish additional ministerial service, and where there is no substantial hope of the newly arranged charges becoming self-supporting within a reasonable time, that we urge upon the appointing Powers the reuniting of said charges to save missionary money.

Resolved, six, That where mission charges have received appropriations for some years without showing any appreciable development, we recommend that these charges be united, when practicable, with others so that the circuit may become self-supporting and that the appropriations may be used for more promising fields.

Resolved, seven, That in view of the fact that this Board will within the next five years be the recipient of ten per cent of the Centenary funds paid into the General Centenary Treasury by the Western North Carolina Conference, the following is the policy of the Conference Board of Missions with reference to the administration of this fund:

First, That not more than 50 per cent of this fund be used in making appropriations to mission charges.

Second, That 25 per cent of this fund be set apart as a serve fund for meeting emergencies that may arise.

Third, That 20 per cent shall be used as an efficiency fund, the purpose of which shall be to increase the support of the ministry by methods other than direct appropriations.

Fourth, That 5 per cent be used for the maintenance of a Preacher's Institute and the encouragement of our ministers to attend.

Resolved, eighth, That we set as a goal a minimum salary of $1,000 for our pastors (this does not apply to supplies).

Resolved, nine, That while we recognize the fact that the Board is responsible for this policy, we earnestly crave the moral support and co-operation of the Conference to assist us in its application which we believe will bring large returns in the building up of the kingdom of God within the bounds of our Conference.

REPORT NO. 2—THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

THE CENTENARY

The success of the Centenary causes us to bow in humility and thanksgiving at the feet of our Lord. While the financial results of the campaign were highly gratifying, the spiritual results were even greater than the financial. The team work of the Centenary drive has served to train our laymen for more efficient co-operation in all lines of Church work. But the greater part of the Centenary work is still before us, it is easier to secure subscriptions than to collect the money. Consequently, there is greater need for our Conference Missionary Secretary than ever before. We give most hearty endorsement to the work of Rev. R. M. Courtney, and request his re-appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary.

CONSERVATION

The Centenary brings a great opportunity; it also brings a great danger. It has flung wide the gates of the new missionary era for which we have been praying. The danger is that we will not prove ourselves worthy to enter and possess the land. To avoid this danger the Centenary Commission is seeking to press forward on the lines of advance so well begun. The cultivation of stewardship, of life service, and of intercession, bears a fundamental and permanent relation to the success of the Church. Their cultivation must be earnestly continued.

We earnestly recommend that in every church the Centenary Conservation program be followed as closely as possible. This calls for the assignment of specials to individuals, Sunday schools and Churches which may be supported by the Centenary pledges; a stewardship campaign an Eight Day Drive for Tithing Stewards, December 7-14; a concerted and Church-wide effort to establish at least 100,000 family altars; and a co-operation of all preachers and members in the Evangelistic Campaign.

FAMILY ALTARS

We urge our Presiding Elders and preachers to join in the campaign to secure at least our allotment, 5,200 pledged family altars in our Conference.

REGULAR INCOME

Emphasis on the Centenary must not be allowed to obscure the regular sources of income. These form the base line of our finances. The very success of the Centenary makes it the more necessary that there should be a vast increase in regular income in order to take care of the enlarged missionary program. Let it be clearly understood that the Centenary pledges do not include assessments. It would be a calamity if this should be done.

Besides, first, the new law of assessments makes obligatory the annual payment of the missionary assessment along with other assessments which are not involved in the Centenary; second, the regular income, including the regular assessments, has been from the beginning kept entirely separate from the strictly Centenary funds. We would urge, therefore, that this point be made clear and insisted upon without exception.

THE EVANGELISTIC COMMITTEE

We nominate T. F. Marr, T. C. Jordan, J. Dale Stentz, H. L. Powell and Ira Erwin as Evangelistic Committee.

This Committee enters a field of tremendous opportunity. Taking advantage of the spiritual awakening and embryonic revival which has come to us as a result of the great Centenary Drive this Committee desires to serve the Church in helping in a well planned and systematic revival effort. To this end we crave the hearty co-operation and moral support of our preachers and Godly laity in the great work of the Church.

We recommend the appointment of G. W. Fink, Jas. H. Green and Raymond Browning as Conference Evangelists.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Again we endorse the Summer School for preachers at Trinity College and appropriate $400 for the support of the same. We nominate Chas. H. Ireland to succeed himself on the Board of Managers. W. H. Willis and J. W. Moore not being members of the Board of Missions at present, we nominate E. K. McLarty for one year and W. B. West for two years to succeed them.

TEXTILE INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTE

The Board was very much interested in the presentation of the Textile Industrial Institute made by the Rev. D. E. Camak.

We recommend that pastors assigned to industrial districts thoroughly inform themselves with the plans and workings of this school and acquaint both the young people of their congregations and the mill owners with the facts to the end that the mill owners may be led to give financial assistance to this school and that the young people be induced to take advantage of the peculiar opportunities to be had in this institution.

SOUTHERN ASSEMBLY

The Board of Missions most heartily endorses the splendid inspirational and education work being done at our great Southern Methodist Assembly Ground, Lake Junaluska, and urge all of the ministers and lay members to avail themselves of the opportunities that are placed here within our very gates by the Laymen Missionary Movement—for Rest, Recreation, Inspiration, Conference and Training.

We recommend the continuation of the appropriation of $600 to Chapel Hill.

That C. H. Ireland be elected Conference lay leader.

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The Sunday School Board is pleased to announce that Mr. Oscar V. Woosley, one of the most efficient Field Secretaries in the entire connection, will continue for another year his labors for the good of our Sunday Schools.

The Board requests the publishers and editors of the North Carolina Christian Advocate to give to the Sunday School work of the two Conferences as much space each week as one page of four columns, two columns for each Conference.

Unfortunately this year Sunday School Day was not as generally observed as Children's Day has been formerly observed. The General Conference changed the name from Children's Day to Sunday School Day, in the hope of having the youth and adults, and not merely the children, participate in the exercises. Such exercises, embracing the whole school, will tend to advertise and emphasize the entire work of the Sunday School to the whole Church membership.

The Board will furnish, again next year, as formerly, Sunday School Day programs free of charge to all Sunday Schools that observe the day and send in the collection taken to the Treasurer of this Board. The collection should, next year, be sent to Mr. H. A. Dunham, the new Treasurer of the Board, Asheville, N. C. Mr. G. F. Ivey, having served as Treasurer for a year, felt compelled to resign at a recent meeting of the Board.

All money collected in the Sunday School for the Centenary should be sent directly to Col. John E. Edgerton, Treas, Box 38, Nashville, Tenn.

The Board trusts that each Sunday School will make it a matter of pride to make the fifth Sunday collections, for the benefit of the Children's Home, large as possible.

The Board requests the Conference to allow it to hold the Sunday School Anniversary on the night of the opening day of the Annual Conference for next year.

The General Sunday School Board has asked that the entire connection put on a drive for a greater Sunday School enrollment, between the dates of November 1, 1919 and January 1, 1920. This Board hopes that every Sunday School in the Conference will, during this time, very materially increase its membership.

The Board noticed that the members of the Conference listened with keen interest to the address of Mr. D. E. Henderson, of Charlotte, about a way for adding to the Sunday School roll every member of the Church congregation. With the person's consent, surely every member of the church congregation, who does not or cannot attend the regular sessions of the Sunday School, can be placed on the roll of the Home Department.

The General Board is, also, urging a general campaign of evangelism in the Sunday Schools of Methodism, between the dates of January 4, 1920 and March 21, 1920. This Board urges that this campaign of evangelism in the Sunday Schools of our Conference be prayerfully and actively and universally observed.

The Board hopes that the way will open for Mr. Woosley to conduct next year, with the assistance of teachers from Trinity College, graciously and generously offered by President Few, and workers from the Nashville offices, two standard training schools, one in the eastern section of the Conference and the other in the western section.

The Board insists that every preacher and superintendent see that their Sunday Schools get some of the help to be given at the Wesley Bible Class Federation Conference to be held during the next year. Mr. J. M. Holland, Gastonia, N. C., is the President of this Federation.

The Board thinks that it will be highly beneficial, in the larger centers, for the Superintendents of the Methodist Sunday Schools to hold a monthly meeting for Conference and mutual helpfulness.

The Board respectfully requests Bishop Darlington to re-appoint the Reverend J. W. Long to the office of Secretary of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

We are glad to note that the Epworth League throughout the Connection is showing signs of marked improvement from those unfortunate conditions which have obtained since the outbreak of the world war. Three hundred and twenty-seven new chapters have been reported to the Central Office during the year.

The Epworth League money contribution mounts higher every year, the total for the past twelve months amounting to nearly $130,000 or about $44,000 in advance of any previous year.

Within our own Conference we believe the Epworth League is in better condition than ever before, though there remains much seeming indifference among the pastors and their congregations.

We are delighted to report that the League Chapters of this Conference went well beyond their quota in the Centenary Campaign.

We are greatly pleased with the excellent work done by Miss Grace Bradley, for the past four months employed as Field Secretary and most earnestly urge that she be employed in the same capacity for the ensuing year.

The Summer Conference held in Hawthorne Lane Church, Charlotte, in June was more largely attended and indicated a more genuine interest among our young people than any like gathering in our history.

The Epworth League Assembly at Junaluska was well attended and proved to be a great inspiration to the young life of the Church.

We recommend that Junior League Chapters be organized in all our congregations and continued efforts be made to organize intermediate and Senior Leagues wherever practical.

We recommend the Epworth Era and our new Junior Magazine. The Epworth quarterly—and insist that our pastors take these excellent periodicals and call the attention of the young people to them whether there be a loyal organization or not.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

"The greatest thing in the world is man; and the greatest thing in man is mind."

He who captures the mind of man becomes thereby master of the world. In this great conquest "the pen is indeed mightier than the sword," and truth is more powerful than the lightnings from the skies. In the great world war we have seen and felt the power there is in a propaganda of error or truth in the life of a people. This is an age in which we know that it is possible to put on through the press a propaganda that shall build up the Church and bless the world, or break down the cause of Christ and blast the civilization of the world. In this use of the press too often "the children of this world are wiser than the children of light." In this age of darkness and distress, confusion and chaos, let us give God a chance to speak to the people through the press and say as He said on the morning of creation, "Let there be light."

We give thanks to God for the strong editorship and leadership we have in the creation of our splendid church literature. We would encourage our editors by our words of encomium, and bless them by our prayers. We have received good reports from Dr. T. N. Ivey, of the Nashville Christian Advocate, and from the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and we rejoice in the cheering news of their splendid success.

The report of the Board of Publication of the Western North Carolina Conference was before us, and we note with great pleasure that they in obedience to instructions given by our Conference in 1918, met with the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Conference in several conferences, and painstaking labor effected a new corporation to be known as the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., which corporation unites the interests of the two Conferences in the publication of our joint conference organ, the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The North Carolina Conference Board of Publication has already closed out its publication, the Raleigh Christian Advocate, and has brought its interests and united them with our interests in the North Carolina Christian Advocate. This report of the W. N. C. Board of Publication contains also the certificate of incorporation of this new corporation, which is incorporated in our report and appended as Exhibit A.

Certain suggested changes in the charter of this new corporation have been presented to your Board of Christian Literature and we recommend that the whole question of change of charter be referred to the Board of Publication and a Commissioner from Western North Carolina Conference to be named by the Bishop and a like Commissioner to be named by the North Carolina Conference, who shall take the whole matter under advisement, work out any desirable changes, and report such changes, if any to the next session of the respective conferences for their action.

We recommend the adoption of the report and recommendations of our new Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., which is herewith appended as Exhibit B. We would endorse especially the suggestion for the drive for new subscriptions and renewals, and we advise that a goal of 2,500 new subscriptions be set as a minimum for the Western North Carolina Conference.

We urge also that our preachers do not forget our Nashville Christian Advocate in this critical campaign for new subscribers but that it receive its due share of their time and attention. The broadening influence of its connection-wide field should be made effective by its introduction into many new homes during the coming conference year.

We endorse the various publications of our General Sunday School Board. We note with pleasure the amalgamation of the Sunday School Standard with similar Sunday School periodicals of other denominations to make a great national magazine of Christian Education, this new magazine being entitled the Church School. We plead that our pastors realize the absolute necessity of training the teachers in the Sunday schools in these days when every teacher in the day school must have technical pedagogical training.

We call particular attention to the value of the Children's Page in our Christian Advocates. It is a valuable aid to the pastors in securing new subscribers and to the parents in interesting their children in the literature of the church.

And now we pray that our great church may have a real vision of the wonderful opportunity we have in this running, restless, reading age of putting on through our religious press a propaganda in the interest of Him, "whose we are and whom we serve," and of our holy faith in His cause and His church that shall grip the souls of men and command all their energies and resources. We pray that our religious press may become an instrument through which the Holy Spirit of God may speak to this world that needs now to be convinced of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment to come.

C. H. TROWBRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Greensboro, N. C., October, 1919.

To the Members of the Western North Carolina Conference

The Board of Publication of the Western North Carolina Conference begs leave to submit the following as its report on the consolidation of the North Carolina Advocate and the Raleigh Christian Advocate: That this Board of Publication, as a committee, in conjunction with the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Conference, also a committee, had several meetings looking to the consolidation of the two papers and the publishing interests of the two Conferences; that said Boards of Publication had the final meeting on April 16, 1919, with the following results:

The assets of the Board of Publication of the Western North Carolina Conference, as shown by their inventory, were $50,802.56 and that of the North Carolina Conference was $15,955.05. These properties were consolidated and the joint property is held and controlled for the benefit of the two Conferences by a new corporation known as the Methodist Board of Publication, Incorporated. The charter of this corporation is attached to this report, marked Exhibit A, and made a part of the same.

To conserve the interest of the two Conferences a contract was entered into between the members of the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Conference, representing their Conference, and the members of the Board of Publication of the Western North Carolina Conference, representing their Conference; a copy of said contract is herewith attached marked Exhibit B and made a part of this report.

By our action in consolidating the two papers, our Conference organ has a combined circulation of about eighteen thousand (18,000) and we feel that we have taken a long step forward in advancing the cause of Methodism in the two Conferences.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

To the Western North Carolina Conference in Session at Greensboro, October 22, 1919.

The Annual Meeting of the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., was held at the Advocate Building in Greensboro, on Wednesday, October 15, 1919. The following members were present: D. B. Coltrane, H. A. Page, T. C. Hoyle, W. P. Few, N. L. Eure, M. Bradshaw, S. B. Turrentine and M. T. Plyler.

The report of the Agent and Treasurer gave, in detail, a complete inventory of the plant, an itemized statement of the receipts and disbursements, also a financial statement, showing the resources and liabilities as they appeared, October 1, 1919.

The administration of the joint Board began with June 1, the first issue of the consolidated paper appearing June 19. The combined circulation has averaged a little more than 18,000 per week.

Your Board is much pleased to learn that the consolidation of the papers has met with very general favor, and that the subscription list has not been materially affected by the advance in price. Nearly 5,000 new subscribers were added to the list during the year, while comparatively few have been lost by discontinuance. There is no doubt that the people generally are coming to appreciate the value of the Church press, and that the repeated campaigns for increased circulation during the last few years, have not been in vain.

There has been a constantly increasing scale of expenses in operating during the past year, and it is not only necessary that the subscription price of $2 be continued, but it is necessary to insist upon the payment of subscriptions in advance, and that renewals be attended to promptly.

In view of the unsettled conditions, the Board has advised the management to continue to publish a 16-page paper, and we beg all to be patient until the atmosphere of the business world clears up. We all share in the disappointment of not having been able already to enlarge, and otherwise improve the paper.

The financial statement, showing the condition of business, October 1, 1919, is as follows:

Resources

Office building	$20,000.00
Machinery and fixtures	20,839.13
Paper stock on hand	4,869.71
Accounts receivable	2,089.18
Cash items	13,588.60
Mailing List, estimate	6,000.00	$67,386.62

Liabilities

Investments	$34,405.01
Accounts Payable	40.19
Surplus and earnings	32,941.42	$67,386.62

Recommendations

First, 'We recommend that in each of the Conferences, a well organized drive be made in every charge early in the year with the view of placing an Advocate in every home where we have members, and that a minimum number of new subscribers be allotted to each pastoral charge, with the understanding that all old subscribers be urged to renew.

Second, 'We urge our people to patronize our Job Department, remembering that they are thus helping to make for our Church in North Carolina, a strong and attractive paper.

Third, We commend the example of our departed Brethren, Revs. M. C. Field and J. D. Buie, late Superannuates of the Western North Carolina Conferences, who, at different times, contributed out of their meagre income, an amount which we trust will form the nucleus of a substantial endowment for our Advocate. Bro. Field and members of his family contributed $200. Brother Buie and wife, $40. Other small contributions make a total of $250. This we have directed to be held as a sacred fund to which we hope others will soon make substantial additions. This money will be invested and only the interest used to augment the income of the Board.

Rev. L. S. Massey has been elected Editor for the ensuing year and Rev. H. M. Blair, Associate Editor and General Manager of the Business Department, and we request that the Bishop appoint them to this work. Mr. Blair has also been elected Agent and Treasurer of the Board.

We nominate Joseph G. Brown and N. L. Eure to succeed themselves as members of this Board.

(Signed) D. B. COLTRANE, President.
THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

Report Number 1

The Home has had a good year. There has been no death among the officers or children. No plague or epidemic has come nigh our dwelling and the dread scourge of last year, influenza, did not touch any child of the Home.

It is the great purpose of the Home to give each of its children, without stint, such opportunities as are really needful for his or her development. The great increase of interest in education throughout the state must therefore find its echo in the home. Our school, as we believe, giving our children advantages that are not greatly surpassed by any other school of similar grade in the state.

An institution, at best, is a substitute for parental care, not an improvement. No one would justify its existence on any other ground than the uncertainty of human life and the consequent tremendous need for somebody to assume the duties of the deceased parent. We would also point out the fact that dealing with children is subject to many heart-breaks and disappointments. We point with some pride, however, to what some of the children are doing.

The Home has a representative in Davenport College, in Weaver College, and in several high schools. Three of our girls are training in a Sanatorium at Richmond, one in a Sanatorium in Satesville, another is a stenographer in a neighboring town. Two boys are in the aviation service; three are in the navy; and one occupies a position of trust in the government service. Several of the girls are married, one to an army officer now in the Philippines, and are having, as women, what was denied them in girlhood—a home.

The support of the Home has been fine, as reflecting the charitable spirit of our people. The service of the present superintendent began a few months before the outbreak of the world war, and so the present administration has had to deal with a constantly increased cost of living. Notwithstanding this, the Cornelius building and the Smith building, both begun shortly before Dr. Boyer retired, are built; the Gray building has been added; the Hanes building erected and equipped; eleven acres adjoining the section set apart for buildings has been purchased and paid for; and a home for the Superintendent is in process of erection, as is the Tise building provided for in the will of the late Cicero Tise, of Winston-Salem. During the past year $7,500 of indebtedness dating back to the first administration has been paid.

With all this the support has been such that no child has had a real need unsupplied.

It would be well perhaps to remember, however, that our Conference existed twenty years before the Home began and that the Home has been in existence ten years. When these things are considered and we remember that our present plant is what we have after 30 years separate existence as a Conference, it must be admitted that our progress has been slow.

We think it proper to call the attention of those who support the Home to one or two things which are giving the management of orphanages a very great trouble.

First is the scarcity of help. The very great unrest over the country, with the urgent demand for shorter hours, has effected no class of employment more adversely than institutions which are in constant operation. The workers in orphanages have no hour to begin and none to quit. Sunday bears very close resemblance to the other days of the week. Consequently positions in orphanages are not greatly in demand by efficient workers, and inefficient workers in an orphanage merely hinder; they do not help.

Your Trustees state but a simple fact when they tell you that for more than 3 years the Home along with other similar institutions has not been able to do its maximum for the one reason stated above without mentioning others. Every man in business can imagine what the superintendent has been up against and we would ask your patience, with the hope that an improvement in labor conditions may relieve the shortage of help at our Home and at all the orphanages in the State.

The Trustees greatly hope that the early Conference this year may enable the Home to realize largely on Thanksgiving and Work-day contributions.

Conference has always come so close to Thanksgiving that the Home has not received its proper proportion of the benevolence of its people at this particular season. We greatly hope our preachers will give our people an opportunity to contribute.

The Trustees recommend a continuance of the ten per cent and the 5th Sunday collections as the stated means of support of the Home.

We nominate C. H. Ireland, J. L. Nelson, S. L. Rogers, E. L. Bain, T. B. Johnson, each to succeed himself as trustees, and H. C. Johnson to succeed F. M. Weaver.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President.

Report Number 2

The trustees of the Children's Home feel that the time has come to make a real effort to enlarge the Home. During the period of the war it seemed proper that our efforts in this country should be directed toward those people and those countries where destruction and devastation were greatest. Only those in charge of charitable and benevolent Institutions in this country can understand what it has meant for the great multitude of generous people to have their attention directed exclusively to similar objects far away.

This was as it should be. It is too late in the world's history for what is perhaps the world's most favored nation to begin or to continue a policy of isolation with regard to the world's suffering. But your Trustees think it now proper for our people to turn toward a more ungrudging relief of the sufferings of our people. Those in charge of the Home feel that there is a safe middle ground. As suggested above, if we withhold from our suffering fellowmen elsewhere we shall surely be afflicted with poverty of spirit, and shall as a nation await and receive the fate of the unprofitable servant. But, if God is no respecter of persons, the cry of need here in our country and among our own people should certainly ring as loudly in our ears as a similar cry elsewhere.

All these calls have had a generous, worthy and proper response. Let us now for a little while attend to our own.

The Children's Home is in need of

1. An Infirmary,
2. A Chapel,
3. A Laundry,
4. Suitable Barns,
5. A Dairy Equipment.
6. At least 3 new Cottages for Children.

Your Board thinks these things can be provided for around $100,000.

There should be added the Endowment Fund of the Home, at this time, at least the sum of $75,000.

We ask the approval and co-operation of the Conference in the raising of $175,000 the coming year for the purposes set forth above.

The Trustees at the last named meeting took the above action, subject to the approval of the Conference, and appointed the Executive Committee to provide necessary plans for carrying out the same.

We ask you to make this the action of the Conference.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President.

BIBLE CAUSE

No literature or data of any sort, as to the years work of the American Bible Society has come into our hands; therefore we are unable to give desired information as to the great work accomplished in the publishing and distribution of the Bible since our last Annual Conference.

The Conference has raised for this cause on the assessment of $2,259, the sum of $1,939.92, which is only $32.96 increase over what the Conference paid last year.

Our religious life is dependent in a large measure upon how we feed our souls on the word of God.

May not the spiritual death of the church be attributed largely to the neglect of a regular daily devotional reading of the Bible?

This is a tremendously important question and vitally touches the entire church membership. For no deeply spiritual life can be developed in any one who habitually neglects the study of God's word.

Therefore it behooves us as ministers of the Gospel, to keep this question prominently before our congregations and urge it upon the families as we visit from house to house.

(Signed) N. R. RICHARDSON, Chairman,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

God's law and teachings as to the keeping of the Sabbath day have never been annulled, though they do not prevail. Christianity is in jeopardy if we do away with this day. For this reason, your committee urges our pastors to preach on the right observance of the day to their people and that our Sunday school teachers instruct the pupils under their care in this matter.

We likewise urge our people to keep the Sabbath day holy; that they themselves refrain from all unnecessary work or demand it of others, by requiring the delivery of food, ice, etc., that could be secured in advance, that they avoid the use of the Sabbath hours for worldly business or pleasure such as automobile riding, picnics Sunday picture shows, visiting cold drink stands, the keeping open of drug stores except in cases of emergency.

We respectfully and prayerfully urge our preachers, our home-makers and all our Methodist people to help us to make this day what it should be, instead of a day of desecration and displeasure in God's sight.

(Signed) E. R. WELCH, Chairman,
MRS. P. W. TUCKER, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

Report Number 1

We desire to call your attention to the reports of the welfare workers of the state for the various counties. They reveal an alarming state of Juvenile delinquency throughout the state. There are many cases of white girls too old to be sent to orphanages. Some are living in most undesirable surroundings, some are wayward, but not vicious, some have escaped from parental control, others are without parents. Their only salvation lies in their being placed under proper influences in institutions supported by the state. Our church maintains such an institution in the Vashti School at Thomasville, Georgia, but this institution is compelled for lack of room to turn away as many girls as it receives. An institution for negro boys on the order of the Stonewall Training School is a crying need. The number of colored boys who have entered upon a life of crime is appalling and our present method of committing them to penal institutions where they mingle with hardened criminals intensifies their individual criminal tendencies. We recommend that this Conference by formal resolution request the General Assembly of North Carolina to enact such legislation as the occasion demands, and make adequate appropriations for the maintenance of

First, a school for girls,

Second, a reformatory for colored boys.

We request that Dorman Thompson and D. E. Henderson, of this Conference, be appointed to draw a bill embodying the spirit of these resolutions, to be presented at the next session of the General Assembly of North Carolina.

Prohibition and Temperance

Under prohibition North Carolina's progress has been great. Bank deposits in 1908 were fifty-three million but in 1918 one hundred and fifty-five million. School funds in 1908 were three and a quarter million, but in 1918, eight million. Teachers in 1908 were ten thousand, but in 1918 fifteen thousand.

War time prohibition has already proven a great asset to the nation, the church, the home and the individual, and the blessings will multiply as the act is enforced under the provisions of the code recently passed by Congress.

We hail with delight this code which gives assurance that this nation is determined to stop the illicit making and dealing in intoxicating liquors, and this will show to other nations that prohibition does prohibit and that the 18th, amendment to the Constitution is no dead letter.

We are glad to know that the Anti-Saloon League has a missionary program to help the other nations rid themselves of the liquor traffic. We believe that it will be necessary to stop the liquor traffic in missionary fields before the missionary school, hospital and church can do their God-given work.

Law enforcement is as needful as law enactment. The liquor traffic is an anarchist and will obey no law unless forced to. Therefore, faithful and efficient law enforcement officers are needed. Our people should see that no other sort are elected.

The Anti-Saloon League, which is "the church in action against the saloon," is now planning a campaign of this state, November 2-December 21, 1919, when fifteen men will make 340 speeches, for the purpose of giving the people the vision of world prohibition and making known the provisions of the Law enforcement code. We urge our people to give attention and support to this campaign.

Your committee desires to endorse the work of the Anti-Saloon League and the work of the efficient state superintendent, Rev. R. L. Davis.

We recommend that Reverend H. M. Blair and Dr. F. A. Hathcock be re-elected members of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League for another year.

We deplore the rapidly increasing spread of the tobacco habit, especially in the cigarette form among boys. The greatest cigarette salesman in the world says he is ashamed that our great nation does not use a hundred billion a year instead of only the forty billion, used last year. The hundred billion a year will be reached in three years and five months at the present rate of increase. We believe the church and all other good institutions should prosecute a vigorous campaign against the cigarette evil, and we respectfully recommend that this Conference request the Commission on Temperance and Social Service to prepare as full a statement as may be available on the nature and extent of this evil and publish the same with recommendations to the various annual Conferences for such uniform action as may best to secure its speedy abolition. We believe all good people should do all they can reasonably to discourage the tobacco traffic and habit, since all tobacco values are in their last analysis purely fictitious, and the pleasure felt in its use is utterly delusory and its real effects must be always more or less harmful to its habitues.

As to Sabbath observance, racial relations and their obligations, the preciousness of human life and the majesty of civil law against lynchings and fatal peace-breaking strikes, and any other moral and social questions not herein definitely considered, we believe the attitude of our church is sufficiently well known, and that it only remains that we by faithful preaching and earnest prayer bring about the all necessary and all sufficing revival of righteousness.

Report Number 2

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The church must face courageously and in love all the facts of life, insisting meanwhile that only her Lord and Master can solve all the problems now perplexing the people of all lands. While individual salvation as the ever dominant note of the church's message and as the only antidote for selfish materialism was never more necessary than now, yet Jesus in the Golden Rule and the Second Commandment emphasizes the social duties and the true Christian Church must teach and practice them.

The present day industrial unrest in which the church must feel a deep concern, is attributable, we believe, to the failure, either through the honest misunderstanding, or else through the selfish purpose, of one or more of the contending parties to apply Christian principles in the conduct of industrial affairs.

While the church cannot, of course, directly control legislation affecting these matters, such functions pertaining solely to the State, she may yet so proclaim and exemplify the Christian principles applicable to industry that they will ere long mold the laws and govern the life of the industrial world.

It may not be the province of the church organically to deal specifically with the subjects in dispute, but only to point out the moral principles generally accepted as germane to them, and whenever practicable to assist in their application.

We believe the church as a body should not take the side of any party in the pending controversy, nor assume to arbitrate the matter; but should, rather, in the spirit and conduct of her membership, prove herself to all men the impartial friend of all the parties involved and the inplacable foe of injustice wherever found.

We believe the acceptance of the Gospel of Christ, and this acceptance only, will prove to be the salvation of men from all the wrongs that oppress, the sins that defraud, and the selfishness and envy that lead to strife, to that love for God which keeps His commandments, to that love for men which fulfills the law, working men no evil and keeping the Golden Rule, to that spirit of patient and honest investigation necessary to a clear understanding of these perplexing problems, and to that better-than-worldly wisdom necessary to their solution.

We believe that true Christian citizenship should exemplify and recommend to men that pure democracy taught originally in God's word; the democracy of equality, in personal liberty and universal brotherhood—"one is your Master even Christ and all ye are brethren;" the democracy that "renders to all their dues," in which "there is no respect of persons," in which "no one seeks his own, but every one another's wealth," in which the employee serves his employer "in all good fidelity" and for which faithful service the employer renders "that which is just and equal, knowing that he also has an Employer in heaven," in which "they that are strong bear the infirmities of the weak" and "he that is greatest is the servant of all."

We believe the ministry should tenderly and boldly proclaim the Lord Jesus Christ, who loves all men with the same dying love—men of every class and condition—as the supreme and infinitely just Arbiter of all disputes, before whose bar and in whose final Arbitriment every man shall be rewarded according to his works.

For a fuller and clearer statement of the principles and conduct suggested in this report we would commend to the earnest study of all our people the social Creed of our church found in the Discipline, to which Creed our church as a body stands fully committed.

(Signed) W. M. BORING, Chairman,
T. JOGBURN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your committee notes signs of spiritual life indicated by increased attendance upon the ordinances of the church in many of our congregations, also by the very wholesome effect of the Centenary campaign and especially the league of Intercession and tithing which have been a means of grace and blessedness hitherto not experienced by many. We consider this one full step toward the open windows of heaven from which cometh the blessings for which many are begining to thirst and for which let us all cry day and night till they fall upon us.

In this connection your committee endorses heartily the idea of a church-wide revival effort for soul-winning set forth in the further plans of the Centenary movement and recommend that all our preachers and laymen work and pray for the much needed revival. With diligence and zeal let us emphasize prayer and personal work but let us not conclude that a mere mechanical "drive" however well directed can save souls. The revival we need can only come as a result of pungent, piercing conviction wrought in the hearts and consciences of men by the sovereign Holy Spirit. Such conviction may be expected to follow the plain, positive, unctious preaching of the pure, fundamental doctrine of God's word, preached with that power and unction which melts, and uplifts the saints and which pricks and slays sinners and saves the mourner. But notwithstanding the things which encourage us we note signs of much spiritual death in many of our churches as evidenced by carelessness, prayerlessness and the absence of real faith, joy and fruitfulness.

Among the more hurtful things effecting our people your committee calls attention to the prevalence of the dance and the 'movie. The spirit which moves men to dance is not of God and those who dance have no fellowship in the Holy Spirit. Let us condemn it.

The movie as generally conducted in our towns today is of the world and not of the church and therefore chill rather than warm our hearts, and therefore, seeing it endangers our fellowship with God to frequent these places as commonly operated, your committee believes this conference should go on record as condemning much that is being staged in these places and insist that in behalf of the moral welfare of our common humanity all shows should be strictly and wisely censored. And for the present we exhort all the people called Methodists to refrain from attending them. First, because this is a safe course to pursue in these perilous times. "Come out and be separate saith the Lord." Again, such a course upon our part would start a sentiment in favor of proper reformation of the whole movie business.

Your committee's attention has been called to the dearth of family altars. Our people are in a hurry; business, pleasures, social demands and material interests, these engage us; we do not "take time to be holy."

Some complain that pastoral visits often are no more than social calls; the pastor often leaves without asking about the spiritual state of the members of that home and sometimes without praying. How unlike this were the visits made by Brownlow Lyda and others who with hymn book and Bible sat there and sang, read, asked of their experiences and then prayed, often prayed for each by name. How did our hearts burn within our youthful breasts as we gazed upon that pastors face, as we "took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus."

Finally: In view of all the conditions about us and the leanness of heart within us and tremendous task before us and the fearful responsibility which is upon us as a people called Methodists and in view of the fact that God is now about to give us another chance to arouse ourselves and awaken the heart and conscience of earths multitudes by restoring to us the revival fires and power of Wesley and Whitefield's day, we therefore exhort all, that with purpose of heart, we cry unto God to revive us, empower us and send us everywhere in His will.

Let us be Methodists—Just Methodists.

Let us live like Methodists—holy living.

Let us pray like Methodists—fervently and without ceasing.

Let us sing like Methodists—congregational singing, heartily.

Let us preach like Methodists—preach to hearts of men.

Let us shout like Methodists—as did Barbara Heck.

Let us go like Methodists—to all classes, everywhere.

JIM GREEN, Secretary.

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

(1) The work of the conference agent and your committee has been handicapped on account of the special effort in the conference for the Centenary cause during the year, but, notwithstanding, the committee is gratified to report progress, and the progress has been very satisfactory, in view of the handicap as above mentioned. For the detail of the work during the year and the present status of the fund, reference is made to the special reports of Rev. J. P. Rodgers, our conference agent, and Mr. E. A. Cole, Secretary and Treasurer of this fund.

(2) The committee would recommend to the conference the continuation of this special agency and work and the same assessment as last year for the support of the conference agent for this cause, and recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. P. Rodgers, as special agent.

(3) The committee would recommend a more aggressive campaign the next conference year and to that end we ask that the presiding elder of each district, in co-operation with the committee of laymen for the district, appoint an hour at the district conference for such district to be devoted to the consideration of this cause and the presentation of the cause by the agent or some one especially interested in presenting this matter to the laymen of the district.

(4) The committee would ask that a special sermon be preached in each church in the conference by the pastor, urging this great obligation and cause to the members of such congregations, and that this sermon be preached at some convenient time preceding the district conference.

(5) The committee earnestly urges the co-operation and prayers of the entire membership of the church in behalf of this urgent and worthy cause in our church.

(6) The committee is continued for another year.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

1. According to reports of 1919, we have 861 church buildings valued at $3,960,812, and 210 parsonages, which are valued at $732,550; an increase over last year of $685,904 on churches, and 957 on parsonages.

2. The indebtedness on churches is $173,134, on parsonages, $24,420; an increase on churches of $9,798, and a decrease of $1,957 on parsonages.

3. We find this property is insured to the amount of $1,285,925 which is an increase of $215,500 during the year.

4. While some of our people appreciate what it means to protect our property, yet a large part of it is still uninsured, and the people careless or indifferent about this important matter.

Therefore, we would bring it before them, that it is negligence on the part of God's stewards, to fail to take care of His house, by insuring it from loss; and, further, we would urge that they patronize our own Methodist Mutual Insurance Company, of Statesville, by whose plan they can not only help one of our own causes, but receive much advantage themselves.

5. We, further, recommend and urge that where churches are to be built or remodelled, the committee secure help and plans from the General Board of Church Extension, so that the designs may conform to beauty, as well as convenience, and be built to meet the growing demands and best interests of our Sunday schools, especially in our rural communities.

6. We would urge our pastors and laymen to give more consideration to the locating of new churches and parsonages, giving special attention to securing enough land for gardens and yards.

Remembering that under our itinerant plan, our pastors, their wives and children do not stay in one place long enough to derive benefit from the planting of fruit trees and perennials, we ask that such be planted and passed on to all who shall come.

7. Further, that the laymen make it their business to see that the old churches and parsonage are kept in good repair with paint and kalsomine, and the grounds neat and clean, and planted with grass and trees for shade and fruit.

(Signed) A. R. SURRATT, Chairman,
MRS. V. L. STONE, Secretary,
C. F. SHERRILL.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

Your committee on district conference records submits the following report:

All these books were before us except the record of the Statesville district.

These records were carefully examined and it is found that Winston, North Wilkesboro, Morganton, Salisbury, Asheville, Charlotte, Shelby, and Waynesville, are well kept.

There were a few criticisms made on the others which will be found on a slip of paper in the books, as some of these books are small, we recommend that larger and more uniform books be used.

As these records are history, we furthermore recommend that, all the old records that are filled, and others as they are filled, be placed in the hands of the custodians of the Historical Society to be preserved.

(Signed) C. L. McCAIN, Chairman,
E. N. CROWDER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

The Board submits the following report for the year 1918-1919. The Board has under its control the sum of $17,900 in real estate and cash loans secured by first mortgage on improved real estate. The annual income from this fund is used only to aid in the support of our superannuated preachers, widows and orphans. The Board has paid to this cause the sum of seven hundred and forty ($740) dollars and with the interest from the Methodist Board of Publication $660, making a total paid $14,000 which amount has been turned over to the Board of Finance for distribution to the conference claimants.

The Board requests the conference to enlarge its membership by the addition of two laymen, giving thereby nine members and it has nominated the following which we request the Conference to confirm by: C. R. Hoey and I. F. Craven.

The Board received a proposition from Gen. W. A. Smith (through A. R. Bell) looking toward the transfer of certain property to the trustees and a committee was appointed to examine the property and make report to the Board.

The treasurer was authorized with consent of the Conference to sell certain real estate situated in the city of Asheville, if satisfactory prices could be obtained.

The members of the Board has signed a deed conveying certain land known as the Coleman property to Weaver College as ordered by the Conference at its session in High Point in 1912.

The officers of the Board elected for the coming year are: D. Atkins, Chairman and J. E. Gay, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Board is gratified at the increase of its funds by the bequest of Mr. B. D. Heath, of Charlotte, and commend his noble example to the consideration of others who want to do something for the good of humanity.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

Your Board of Directors beg leave to report that they have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company, together with the aid of a Certified Public Accountant, and after a thorough investigation have found the books of Secretary and Treasurer are in excellent condition.

There is in force at the present time $786,714 of insurance covering church property and personal effects of preachers belonging to the two conferences. The past year was the best in the history of the Company. A very large increase was made in the amount of insurance in force and the assets have also very materially increased. A dividend of 20 per cent is being returned to the policyholders on renewal policies. This dividend which represents a direct saving to the Church gives great satisfaction to the various Boards of Trustees.

Your Board recommends that each pastor be required to furnish as a part of his report to the Annual Conference such information as is necessary regarding insurance on church property, this report to be made on blanks to be furnished by the Company.

We recommend the re-election of John W. Jones, as a director, his term to expire in 1924.

Your Board would urge the members of the Conference and each Board of Trustees holding property for the Church within bounds of the Conference to see that such property is adequately protected in our Company.

(Signed) E. A. COLE, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE METHODIST SUMMER SCHOOL

The Board of Managers of the Methodist Summer School respectfully submit the following report for the year 1919:

The second session, June 3-3, was highly successful. A most capable faculty, with Rev. H. E. Spence as Dean, gave instruction in the undergraduate courses. Fifty-six under graduates received nine days instruction in their respective studies. Thirty-four of these came from the Western North Carolina Conference and twenty-two from the North Carolina Conference. Ten of these passed satisfactory examinations in all their subjects; others passed in a part of their work.

In the graduate department, one hundred preachers registered. Dr. F. N. Parker, of Emory University, lectured each morning on the Person and Work of Jesus Christ. Other speakers filled their places on the program. We mention a few of them.

Dr. Charles L. Goodell, of New York, spoke on the "Heralds of a Passion," and Dr. Harris Elliott Kirk, of Baltimore, presented Isaiah's Message to the Modern Man. Dr. George Albert Coe, of Union Theological Seminary, N. Y., dealt with his specialty, Religious Education. Rev. Thurston B. Price discussed evangelistic methods and Dr. W. P. Few was heard in public addresses.

Larger plans are being laid for the next term—June 1-18, 1920. Two new courses in Sunday school work and one on the rural church are to be offered and the presence of laymen and laywomen is to be sought. Talent of national and international note is to be secured and all courses are to be free to all.

To continue the work, we are asking that the same financial support as given in the past be continued by the Conferences. Could the Sunday School Boards contribute something to aid in the work to be done in forwarding the Sunday schools the money would be well spent.

We would remind the Boards of Education and the Boards of Missions of each Conference that the terms of four of the Managers expire this year: viz, H. M. North and W. W. Peele, of the North Carolina Conference, and G. T. Rowe and C. H. Ireland, of the Western North Carolina Conference. According to the plan of organization, the respective Boards nominate and the Conferences elect the nominees to fill all vacancies in the Board of Managers.

That the entire ministry may be free to share in the benefits of the coming session, we respectfully suggest and ask the Conference to urge that the Presiding Elders encourage their preachers to arrange supplies, or to suspend services on the second Sunday in June, that they may attend the school next year.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, President.
W. H. WILLIS, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE ELEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in its eleventh Annual Session in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C., on October 23, 1919, three o'clock p. m., with W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. Devotional services were conducted by W. L. Dawson. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Secretary and Treasurer then made his annual report which was a very encouraging one. The committee appointed one year ago to launch a campaign for new members made its report through C. A. Wood, and is as follows: In order to increase the membership of our Brotherhood to a number large enough to yield at least $1,000 for each beneficiary, the following plan is adopted: First, each Presiding Elder and Preacher in Charge is requested to furnish the Secretary of the Brotherhood with the name and address of a suitable layman in each charge to present the advantages of the Brotherhood to the congregations of his charge.

Second, The Secretary will as soon as possible write these men asking them to bring the claims of the Brotherhood to their congregations, furnishing them with cards for pledges.

Third, In this campaign for honorary members the Presiding Elders are requested to secure in their districts 500 honorary members and to allot their quota which follows to the various charges according to their best judgment.

Asheville District, 50; Charlotte, 60; Greensboro, 60; Marion, 40; Mt. Airy, 40; N. Wilkesboro, 30; Salisbury, 50; Shelby, 50; Statesville, 50; Waynesville, 40; Winston 50 Honorary members.

Fourth: That the second Sunday in January 1920, be designated as a special day when this campaign for increased membership shall be put on, or as soon thereafter as possible.

(Signed) FRED N. TATE,

MEMOIRS

JOHN DUNCAN BUIE.

By H. M. Blair.

Rev. John Duncan Buie was born in Cumberland County, North Carolina, May 22, 1837, and passed to his eternal reward at the home of his daughter, Mrs. May Nicholson, San Bernardino, California, on Thursday, October 9, 1919. He was licensed to preach at Bethesda church, on the Danbury Circuit, in October, 1857, so that his ministry covered the unusually long period of sixty-two years.

He was admitted on trial in the traveling connection at Raleigh in December, 1862, and was appointed as Chaplain in the Confederate army. He continued to labor as a Chaplain in the army until the war closed. Following is the list of his appointments as they appear in the general Minutes:

- 1863—Chaplain in the C. S. Army.
- 1864—Chaplain in the Seventh Confederate Cavalry.
- 1865—Chaplain to the Tenth Georgia Cavalry.
- 1866—No list of appointments given.
- 1867—Montgomery Circuit.
- 1868—Yadkinville Circuit.
- 1869—Onslow Circuit.
- 1870-71—Cokesbury Circuit.
- 1872—Topsail Circuit.
- 1873-74—Supernumerary.
- 1875—Superannuated.
- 1876-77—Mattamuskeet Circuit.
- 1878—Williamston Circuit.
- 1879-80-81—Halifax Circuit.
- 1882-83—Roanoke Circuit.
- 1884-85—Rolesville Circuit.
- 1886-87—Yanceyville Circuit.
- 1888-89-90—Superannuated.
- 1891-92—Enochville Circuit.
- 1893—Table Rock Circuit.
- 1894—West Haywood Circuit.
- 1895—Hayesville Circuit.
- 1896—Polkville Circuit.
- 1897—Iredell Circuit.
- 1898—Catawba Circuit.
- 1899—Old Fort Circuit.
- 1900—Jonesville Circuit.
- 1901—Superannuated.
- 1902—Thermal City Circuit.
- 1903-19—Superannuated.

Thus it seemed that this man served in more than twenty-five different charges, covering a period including four years in the superannuate and two years in the supernumerary relation, of about forty years. The territory included in these various fields stretched from the seashore to the mountains, and many of these charges were among the most trying and difficult fields in the state.

I had the privilege of a somewhat intimate association with Brother Buie when he was serving the Enochville Circuit. I was impressed with him both as a preacher of great force and as a man of piety and zeal. He knew our doctrines and could present them with great power and effect.

As we have seen in the early period of his ministry, especially which included the Civil war and reconstruction period, he served in many hard and trying fields. While these years of peculiar hardship did not break his spirit they doubtless had much to do with breaking an otherwise powerful constitution and paved the way for a long period of superannuation and suffering. But all these years of suffering have been years of patient waiting, exhibiting a beautiful process of mellowing and ripening for the eternal life beyond. Once a year for many years he has remembered the editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate with a message of brotherly greeting and affection, and for three years has sent a little contribution out of "The Lord's tenth" to help start an endowment fund for the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

His heart was always with us and across the wide stretch of distance which separated him in body from the brethren whom he so dearly loved, his greetings and prayers came as an inspiration to those who could labor while it was allotted to him only to wait. We commend the aged companion and other loved ones left behind, to the sympathy of numerous friends and to the grace of that God whom our brother served and trusted through so many years of faith and toil.

In 1863 he was happily married to Miss Mattie Rowles, who has been a faithful helper in all his work, and who still survives.

When at last it became evident that he must retire permanently from active service, he and his faithful companion went to Southern California, where they found opportunity to bear witness to the power of our religion in a beautiful home life which did not fail to impress itself upon those with whom they came in contact.

CLARENCE RICHARDSON CANIPE

By John F. Kirk.

Clarence Richardson Canipe was born in Cleveland county, near Palm Tree church, February 9th, 1877, and died in Columbus, Ohio, July 1st, 1919. After a pilgrimage of forty-two years, he came back to the old church to sleep with his fathers till the resurrection day.

In 1892, when he was fifteen years of age, he professed faith in Jesus Christ and joined the Methodist Church at Palm Tree.

After attending the local schools, he was for a while at Rutherford College, and taught at intervals in the local public schools. He was licensed to preach at the District Conference, of the Shelby District, at Gastonia in 1902. In December, 1903, he was appointed junior preacher on the Summerfield Circuit, and at the following session of the Western North Carolina Conference, held at Charlotte in November, 1914, he was admitted on trial into the Conference, and was appointed to the Stoneville-Mayodan charge. At the next session of the Conference he was appointed a student at Trinity College, where he remained three years. During a part of the time that he was at Trinity College, he served as supply for one of the Durham churches. In 1907, while still at College; he transferred his membership to the North Carolina Conference.

His regular pastoral work may be said to have begun when in 1908 he was appointed to the Aurora circuit in the Washington district. He married, on December 23rd, 1908, Miss Leila Finger, of Lincoln county. Brother Canipe was fortunate in his choice. No small share of the success and happiness of his life was due to the loving helpfulness of the helpful wife, who is left to mourn his departure. To this union were born three sons; namely, Clyde Asbury, born December 29th, 1909; Walter Grigg, born December 5th, 1913; and Clem Lee, born September 6th, 1917.

He served the Aurora charge three years, and in 1912 the Troy circuit. 1912 Tar River circuit, where he stayed for three years; 1916 Person Street and Calvary charge in Fayetteville. It was here that his leg was broken, and it was so long in healing that he was compelled to take the superannuate relation at the session of 1916. At the close of the Conference year he was transferred back to his old home Conference, the Western North Carolina, and was appointed to the Polkville circuit.

This charge is so near to his boyhood home that it is no small tribute to his personality that he should have been so willingly received. And it is greatly to the credit of the people of Polkville charge that they so heartily co-operated with him, neighbor boy, in his efforts to lead the church onward to better things. It was not surprising, therefore, that his pastorate here has been successful. It is probable that neither Brother Canipe nor the Polkville charge ever had a more successful pastorate than the one which was suddenly terminated by his untimely death.

Mere achievement can never be the full measure of a man, for the doer is ever greater than the deed. But the work accomplished by Brother Canipe, during the last eighteen months of his ministry, marks him as a man of more than average ability. There was marvelous advance along all lines. The salary was almost doubled during this period; conference collections, although greatly increased over previous years, were secured in full for the first time in 27 years; successful revivals were held in a majority of the churches of the charge; but the greatest achievement, and the one in which he took most pride, was the raising of the full Centenary allotment, with a good surplus without using any of the credits. He was happier over this accomplishment than over any other in his pastoral experience, and his trip to Columbus was made in the spirit of celebration over the success in the Polkville charge.

The trip was, in some sense, characteristic of the man. In service to the Lord, he was ever fervent in spirit. Success in the Master's work gave him great joy, failure bore down upon him and greatly depressed him. He said in the presence of the writer that he considered the raising of the Centenary quota as the greatest achievement of his life, and that he greatly desired to go to Columbus to round out the achievement in proper and fitting form.

Not only was he fervent but at times really eloquent in his preaching, and in revivals his preaching was especially effective in reaching the unconverted and stirring the church members to renewed zeal and consecration. Though a comparatively young man, he was an old-time Methodist preacher; he believed in the old doctrines, in the old songs, and in the old methods. He had little tolerance for easy methods in revival work, he believed in and used the old-fashioned mourner's bench, and he said he found it the most efficient means of getting sinners genuinely converted to God.

He was a true itinerant. He was especially suited to the circuit. Not every man fits into the work of a big country circuit; Canipe did. A pastor that can succeed anywhere, can usually succeed on the average middle-class station, but success on a big country circuit requires special fitness and ability. He was succeeding admirably on one of the largest and most difficult circuits in the district.

It seems a strange providence that suddenly snatches away a man who is just coming into his best achievements, who is just arriving at the full development of his powers, but we rest assured that God knows best. He was not permitted the joy of coming up to conference to render a report that would have held in it for him a note of triumph, but he was granted that infinitely greater privilege of going to make his report directly to his Lord, and we may well trust to hear the encomium that means more than all else, "Well done, thou hast been faithful, enter into the joy of thy Lord."

MELVILLE CHAFIN FIELD

Rev. Melville Chafin Field was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, April 5, 1851, and fell on sleep at his home near Greensboro, North Carolina, August 31, 1919, aged 68 years, 4 months and 26 days.

Brother Field was the son of William Field and Cleopatra Henley Field. His father died when the son was only two years old. At this early age, he was taken into the home of his aunt, Mrs. Mary Craven, who lived near Bethlehem church, in the vicinity of Climax, North Carolina. This splendid woman gave him godly training and no doubt did much of the foundation work upon which was built his subsequent career of usefulness in the church. During this period, he enjoyed the advantage of such educational facilities as the public schools of the day, and an occasional subscription school, afforded. Having reached the years of early young manhood, he went to Burlington, where he clerked for awhile in a store. Then we find him a little later in the Bingham school at Mebane pursuing his studies in that well known institution.

About this time he decided to go to Texas. Whether influenced by the spirit of adventure or in pursuit of some definite goal, it does not clearly appear. At any rate, soon after his arrival in the Lone Star state, he took a school at Chapel Hill, Texas, and taught with acceptability for about two years. However, his life work was to be in another direction. He had felt the call to preach the gospel—clear, distinct, unmistakable—and after the usual struggles incident to such a conviction, he finally yielded his life to this highest of all human callings.

Accordingly, having been licensed to preach previously, he joined the Texas Conference in the year 1872, and served two years in that Conference. Then in 1874, he transferred to California, where he served the following charges: Sacramento, 1875; Yuba City, 1876-1877. In the fall of 1877 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference and was sent to Straits, where he remained one year only, at the expiration of which time, and having married during the year the Tar Heel girl of his choice, he decided to return to California, which he did in 1878. He remained in the far west about eight years this time, serving the following charges: Anderson Ct., in Shasta county 1880-1881; Arbuckle, 1882; Santa Rosa Ct., 1883; Santa Clara Ct., 1884; Sonora Ct., 1885-1887.

During this period, he found his heart turning back to his native state and to the people of his ancestry. And so he left the fair and sunny slopes of California and returned to North Carolina in 1887, making his last transfer and settling down to spend his remaining days upon his native heath. We find him on the Pleasant Garden Ct. in 1888-1889; then in 1890 and 1891, he was on the Lewisville Ct. In the fall of 1891, his health being somewhat impaired, he asked for a nominal appointment the next year, so that he might rest for a brief period, but during this year, a vacancy occurred on the Jamestown circuit by the death of Rev. J. T. Crocker, and Brother Field was asked to serve the circuit for the remainder of the year, which he did. Then he spent the years 1893-1894 on the Yadkinville Ct.; 1895-1897 on the Forsyth Ct.; 1898 on the Waxhaw Ct.; 1899 on the McDowell Ct.; 1900 on the Broad River Ct. Realizing that he was not physically able to do full work, he asked for and obtained the superannuate relation at the Conference session held in Greensboro in the fall of 1900, since which time he has held this relation among us.

His active ministry was marked by a ruggedness of conviction and a vigor of expression in his public utterances, which left no one in doubt as to his position upon all moral questions. He was a staunch defender of the faith. He was not given to compromising the substance of the old time gospel, but preached Christ and him crucified as the world's only hope of salvation.

While holding the superannuate relation for twenty years, he never allowed his interest in the Church to wane for one moment of the time. Indeed, he was alert to every movement of the Kingdom as expressed in the fuller activities of the Church under modern conditions. He was refreshingly cheerful and optimistic in his disposition all the way through. I was gratified to learn with what completeness he kept abreast of the times and lived in full and absolute harmony with the big movements of the Church in recent days. He gave much thought to the institutions of his beloved Methodism in a general way, and was always ready to co-operate with his pastor in the work of the local Church. In his last days there were several enterprises in which he was intensely interested. Notable among these was a movement to secure an endowment for the North Carolina Christian Advocate so that the paper might go into the homes of our people who are financially unable to pay the subscription price. He was a pioneer in this movement, and each year he set aside a liberal portion of the small allowance given him by the Conference, for the beginnings of such an endowment. Then, he had under consideration at the time of his death, the setting apart of some money which had come into his hands, for the use of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His unexpected going away interrupted all plans which he had in behalf of these enterprises, and, therefore, they never reached their culmination; but it is hoped that the efforts made by him as indicated may be taken up and completed by others of like generosity and vision.

On April 23, 1878, Brother Field was married to Miss Flora Ledbetter of his own native county, who, after sharing his responsibilities and joys for more than forty years, survives. To them were born ten children, all of whom preceded him to the better world except three, viz.: James Melville Field, Miss Lynette Field and Mrs. J. Thad Weatherly. Another son, Captain Bascom Field, after serving with distinction abroad with the American forces in the great world war, fell upon the field of honor at his post of duty, in the famous battle near Bellecourt, September 29, 1918, the battle which broke the Hindenberg line and forced the cessation of hostilities less than two months later. It is a matter of just and pardonable pride to all our itinerant brotherhood that when the titanic struggle was on between world forces to determine the character of future civilizations, none fought more heroically or died more bravely to establish those principles upon the earth for which Methodism has thundered through the years than did the noble sons of our parsonage homes throughout the land. Then his son-in-law, Mr. J. Thad Weatherly, also gave his life to the cause of freedom in the same great conflict, having fallen victim to a fatal malady in Camp Sevier, October 11, 1918. These sorrows weighed heavily upon the heart of this hero of many spiritual battles, but he bore his trials with Christian fortitude and resignation.

The passing of Brother Field was sudden, yet he was ready. It occurred on the last Sunday in August. He had attended Sunday school at Zion church, and later, divine worship at the same place, conducted by his pastor, the Reverend J. E. Woosley, and after returning to his home and performing the late afternoon duties around his modest little home, the messenger called as the sun was sinking out of sight, and, without a fear or a struggle, he yielded his spirit into the hands of God, and was gone. Thus ended a day of usefulness spent in his Father's courts below and at the same time, a long career of useful service in the ranks of militant Methodism. He cheerfully made that "Great Adventure" for which he had been perceptibly ripening for several months. His body rests in the peaceful cemetery of Bethlehem church on the Pleasant Garden circuit awaiting the resurrection of the just.

WILLIAM THOMAS USRY.

By W. F. Starnes.

William Thomas Usry was born at Wilton, Granville County, July 30, 1873, and died at Rutherford College August 30, 1919. For nearly a year he had been confined to his bed with a tumor on the brain, yet he bore this intense suffering with patience and Christian fortitude until death relieved him.

At an early age he was converted and joined the Methodist Church, and during his boyhood and young manhood lived a devout Christian life. When a small boy he attended the various schools of the community and ranked above the average in intellect and desire to obtain an education. At the age of thirteen he won a competitive scholarship to the A. and M. College at Raleigh. But even at this early age he evinced a desire to spend his life for righteousness and high and useful service; so he declined the scholarship and instead attended Franklinton Classical Institute, where he prepared himself for college. Here he made a brilliant record as a student, winning the declaimer's medal as well as several honors in debate. Then in 1894, he entered the State University, made his way through entirely by his own efforts, and graduated in 1898.

For several years following his graduation he taught school. The Cokesbury Conference School, Cokesbury, S. C., and the Franklinton Classical Institute are two of the schools in which he taught with industry, capability and the highest degree of satisfaction to his patrons.

In 1904 Brother Usry joined the North Carolina Conference in which he served the following charges: Hamlet, 1904-05; Elizabeth City, 1906; Oriental, 1907-08; Milton, 1909-10. In 1905 he was happily married to Miss Maude Merrimon of Cokesbury, South Carolina. Four bright children blessed their union, who, together with his good wife, survive him. In 1910, in an attempt to improve his health, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference. Here he filled the following charges: Marshal, 1911; Cherryville, 1912-15. The Conference then appointed him teacher in Rutherford College, where he held the position of vice president and professor of Latin and Bible until his fatal illness.

As a preacher Brother Usry was true to all the interests of Christ's kingdom. The work of the Lord prospered under his ministry. He was never assertive but always at work in a quiet, modest way. He was uniformly successful as a builder. During his pastorate at Hamlet he built a splendid church. This beautiful structure stands today as a monument to his energy and zeal. The church at Cherryville was remodeled and improved by his efforts. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability. He was a close student of books. His sermons were gems of truth garnered here and there from the field of knowledge and polished and refined by a rich Christian experience. So, in spite of his frail body, his ministry left behind it a holy influence that sweetened, enriched and enheartened the souls of men.

By his death Rutherford College lost its best teacher and most devoted friend. He was a scholarly man and a successful teacher. The students respected and loved him; all mourn his loss. Not one shall forget his sweet temper, fatherly counsel, and thorough instruction. In the classroom his Christian life shone so brightly that it inspired all to loftier effort. Dying slowly and suffering great pain, he was loth to give up his work and clung to it longer than almost any other man would have done. Frequently while standing before his students in the classroom he would faint and fall to the floor. But when the students had lifted him to his feet, he would cheerfully resume his work again. Though loth to give up life he looked death in the face and was unafraid. But

"Calm and serene, he sees approaching death
As the safe port, the peaceful, silent shore,
Where he may rest, life's tedious voyage o'er."

SCOTT LEE OWENS

Scott Lee Owens was born in Rowan county, forty-three years ago. At the age of seventeen he professed religion and joined the Methodist Church in Salisbury, but for some years his religious experience was not satisfactory. In 1902, at the age of 26, he gave his heart to God so completely that thenceforth there was never any question of his acceptance. Soon after he felt called to preach. But the difficulties seemed insuperable. He was advanced in years, married and had no education. But being convinced that God had called him he dared to obey. His wife, Miss Julia T. Walters, was sympathetic with his higher aspirations. He spent a short time in school at the Southern Industrial Institute. Beginning his public work by holding prayer meetings, his labors were honored of God in the conversion of souls—and from this time to the end of his life this was his passion, and a goodly harvest he reaped for the Master. At the Conference of 1911 he was given work as a supply and sent to New London circuit, where he remained three years. In 1915 he was at Westford, Concord, and in 1916 and 1917 he was on the Kannapolis circuit, and appointed to Watauga circuit in 1918. Just before Conference he was stricken with influenza and was not able to meet with his brethren. Indeed, his earthly struggles were nearly over, for on November 30, 1918, God took him unto Himself.

He was very original, and his enthusiasm was contagious. These went far to make up for his lack of education. But the finest thing about him was his likable disposition, and the fact that he had a warm personal interest in everybody he met. That interest was reciprocated, for he had made for himself a large place in the hearts of a great many people.

I was particularly impressed that so many people, when they heard of his death, said, in substance, "I did think a lot of that man."

J. A. Baldwin.

MRS. C. E. STEADMAN.

Mrs. C. E. Steadman was born Aug. 23 1859, in Dutchess county, N. Y. Was educated at Cook Academy and Vassar College. Was converted at 15 and joined the Baptist church. Came to North Carolina as a music teacher and later was married to Rev. C. E. Steadman, of our conference, and at once identified with the Methodist Church.

She was highly cultured, deeply pious, thoroughly amiable. She had great faith, bore sacrifice without complaint and counted it great honor to labor in any part of the Lord's vineyard. Her life was enriched by sacrifice and enlarged by consecrated activity. She touched a thousand lives with blessing and received blessings in return.

MRS. W. B. THOMPSON.

Lillie K. Lowdermilk was born in Morganton, N. C., March 24, 1890. Married to Rev. W. B. Thompson Dec. 23, 1910. In December, 1918, her husband was stricken with influenza and she faithfully nursed him to health, but in performance of this labor of love she herself was overtaken by the same disease and died Dec. 14, 1918. She was cultured and refined in mind and heart, and encouraged her husband in his holy work. To the industrious care of Martha she added the gentle trustfulness of Mary.
